Design Focus / Redesign Approach	One day decorating services provide same comprehensive approach as initial planning for full service design by firm. Difference between "one day decorating services" and "full service design" offered by firm is extent to which firm is involved in the follow up implementation of the design plan .	Fix 10 problems referred to as "most common decorating mistakes" in the room, based on 5-day in-person or video training course open to non-professionals without previous design experience.	Shop home to create a fresh new redesign of the room. Training is decentralized and varies.

1. Based on 5-day IRN certification training course and conforming refinements conducted under the auspices of Use What You Have Interiors. [Services offered by certified individuals not working under the auspices of Use What You Have may vary.]

2. Some members provide redesign services at hourly rather than flat rates.

3. Small chips for bracketed color selections are provided on day of consultation. Large swatches are sent by mail following the consultation and are generally received within 3-7 days. All brands and color selections are also recorded on the written design plan.

4. Clients receive a full spectrum of options and separate window design worksheet for the selected window treatments for each window. Worksheets include measurements, ordering specs for style and fabrics for each layer of treatment and sketches when necessary.

5. Included in all homes where there is a child under the age of 3 or a child is expected. May be requested for other homes.

6. IRN plan includes only paint (neutrals only), lighting, windows (no treatment designs or measurements; only sheers or silhouettes spec'd), floor coverings (carpets only) and miscellaneous accessories. It does NOT include development of a full color scheme, paint colors and chips, shopping chips, window treatment design, measurements and estimates, lifestyle consultation and total space planning, child safety survey, etc.

7. Uses 3-tiered pricing - advertised rates are only applied to lowest, least experienced tier. [Firm uses freelance designers who have taken 5-day or video training and receive 40% of the advertised fee for their services.] Fees for hiring principal of firm start at 60% ABOVE advertised rates.
